In the proceedings first cited, orders have been issued to the effect that the Pensioners who have retired between 01.06.1988 and 31.12.1995 and alive shall be permitted to opt to compute average emoluments notionally for the calculation of pension based on the scale of pay introduced with effect from 01.12.1984 upto the date of retirement (duly ignoring the 01.12.1988 and 01.12.1992 wage revisions) and with reference to the Dearness Allowance and Additional Dearness Allowance under the Government pattern in the pre-revised scale of pay sanctioned from time to time as Dearness Pay for the entire ten months preceding retirement or to retain the current pension, whichever is advantageous to them. It has also been ordered therein, that if the option exercised is for the pre-revised scale to calculate the pension, the excess pay and allowance and terminal benefits, if any drawn by them in the revised scale of pay prior to their retirement shall be waived as a special case. The consequential arrears in extending the aforesaid benefit was ordered to be paid in two annual instalments. In the reference second cited, instructions have also been communicated for revision of pension in respect of the pensioners whose Service Books are not available.

2. It is brought to the notice that, inspite of the orders issued in the reference third cited the action has not been completed by most of the Pension Sanctioning Authorities.
