PROCEEDINGS:

In the Board Proceeding first read above, orders were issued that in case of death of an employee while in service, an advance of Rs.5000/- (Rupees Five thousand only) from the TNEB Family Security Fund Scheme shall be sanctioned by the pension sanctioning authority for meeting the immediate requirement of the family of the deceased employee based on the written request duly certified to by any Officer of the Board. This advance being adjustable against the lumpsum amount payable later under the said scheme and the adjustment should be made promptly. The nominee to the Family Security Fund Scheme or the person eligible for family pension shall be the claimant of the advance. It will be the responsibility of the claimant to satisfy the sanctioning authority that she/he is the widow/widower or child of the deceased employee. The sanctioning authority shall verify the claim with reference to the records and disburse the amount immediately.

2. The Government of Tamil Nadu in the G.O. second read above, has issued orders that the amount of advance from Tamil Nadu Government Servants' Family Security Fund Scheme be raised from Rs.5,000/- to Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five thousand only) for meeting out the immediate requirement of the families of Government servants including All India Service Officers belonging to the Tamil Nadu Cadre (excluding casual and daily wage employees and those working on contract basis) who die while in service. It has also been ordered that the advance drawn be adjusted against the lumpsum amount to be paid under Tamil Nadu Government Servant's Family Security Fund Scheme. Generally, as the Corporation is following the orders of the Government with regard to the above matter from time to time, the said order has been considered and adopted.

3. Accordingly, it is hereby ordered that the amount of advance from Tamil Nadu Electricity Board Employees' Family Security Fund Scheme be raised from Rs.5,000/- to Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) for meeting the immediate requirement of the families of employees of
